

Professional Development Tours

Preparing teachers for 21st century education

Tour Information Sheet

EF and PDK International have partnered to offer international professional development opportunities to PDK members. In October 2012, educators will travel to Finland and Sweden to learn more about curriculum and instruction, student assessment, and educational policy. This opportunity combines sightseeing and professional development to give participants new ideas and resources for their own classroom.

Itinerary

- A 10-day professional development experience in Finland and Sweden.

Accommodations

- Twin accommodations are included in the program cost. Single accommodations are available for a supplemental fee of $320. Please indicate your single room preference on the application.

Cost

- Pricing from select U.S. airports is listed on the itinerary. If your departure city is not listed, please contact EF Professional Development at (800) 872-8439 or at pdttours@ef.com for pricing from your nearest major U.S. airport. Prices listed are valid until March 31, 2012; departure fees are subject to change.
